CONVENOR
Dr Jenny Ball

An afternoon devoted to this often overlooked and sometimes difficult treatment modality will benefit many experienced and not so experienced practitioners with a frank discussion of the clinical aspect of immediate denture therapy. A lecture will open the afternoon discussions followed by a series of case presentations from the not so difficult to the difficult aspects of providing immediate dentures. This is to take the form of a forum where there is an exchange of ideas with audience participation. Delegates will be encouraged to bring along relevant material for discussion.

About the Presenter:

Dr John Pearson graduated from the University of Queensland and worked as a general practitioner before obtaining his MDS in prosthodontics in 1986. He then entered Specialist Private Practice in Glen Iris in Victoria where he has operated until this day. During this period he has held positions as clinical demonstrator for undergraduate and graduate students at the Universities of Melbourne and Sydney. He has been involved as an examiner for the Australian Dental Council in Prosthetic Dentistry. He is past President of the Australian Prosthodontic Society (Vic Branch), and past Editor of the Australian Prosthodontic Society Newsletter. He is a member of the Australian and New Zealand Academy of Prosthetic Dentistry, the International College of Prosthetic Dentistry and other specialist societies within dentistry. He has been on the Australian Dental Association (Vic Branch) Executive, and on numerous committees within the ADA. He has been involved in the clinical teaching of the Biofunctional Prosthetic System (BPS) for Ivoclar Australia which involved trips to Lichtenstein and Germany for professional exchanges. He has presented on topics of removable prosthodontics in Australia and overseas.
